CRUISE EXCURSION HIGHLIGHTS:

COLOMBO, SRI LANKA
Visit the 1,700-year-old Kithsinmewan Buddhist temple, whose various buildings sit on different levels of a rocky cliff. See the seated Buddha & a sacred Bodhi fig tree. Take a tuk-tuk past paddy fields and visit a village home. Stroll around the village and witness how rubber is tapped. Your last stop is a cinnamon plantation.

PHUKET, THAILAND
Visit Phud Jaw Shrine, dedicated to Kuan In, Goddess of Mercy. Built in the 1920s, Jui Tui Shrine is the oldest and most famous of the Chinese temples in Phuket. Its fame today mainly arises from the Vegetarian Festival that takes place for nine days every October. Admire the many well-preserved old Sino-Portuguese style buildings. Tour Wat Chalong, a monastery with the temple hall housing bronze statues of three monks.

SINGAPORE, SINGAPORE
Feast for your eyes with a coach ride up to Mount Faber for splendid views of the central business district and Sentosa island. More great vistas on the cable car down to Sentosa island. Walk to the famous statue of the Merlion, the mythical lion-fish. Drive around Sentosa island en route to the appealing Marina at Sentosa Cove complex.

HONG KONG, HONG KONG
From the Harbour Front view Hong Kong's world-renowned Symphony of Lights, combining interactive lightshows with musical effects to showcase the glamorous night vista of Victoria Harbour. Then head to the Peak by tram. A visual experience to remember; skyscrapers glide past. Enjoy stunning 360° panoramic views from the Sky Terrace.
